PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Hello my fellow Kennedy Heights neighbors! Fall is finally upon us. The leaves are starting to change color, making for a beautiful backdrop for our wonderful neighborhood. We've had a wonderful year full of great activities like our SAP Run, the All-Star Neighborhood Celebration, Play in the Park at Kennedy Park, our annual Progressive Dinner, Juneteenth!, Raise the Heights, the Kennedy Heights and Pleasant Ridge Arts and Music Festival and our upcoming Winterfest. Thank you all for making this such a great year. Next year will be terrific, but we can't do it without the support of our great neighbors and volunteers. We are always looking for great leaders to step up and help make a difference in Kennedy Heights. During our November council meeting, we will be holding our annual Community Council board elections. There are many great opportunities for you to step up and volunteer. If you, or someone you know is passionate about this great neighborhood, please consider nominating yourself or someone you know for one of the positions. For more information about these opportunities, please feel free to contact me directly at dan@kennedyheights.org or simply attend our next council meeting. Have a great holiday season!

CINCINNATI DEVELOPMENT CODE PROPOSAL

A proposed New Land Development Code for Montgomery Rd. Business District will be discussed at the November 17 Community Council Meeting.

Last year, a staff planner of the Department of City Planning (formerly Department of Planning and Buildings) spoke at the May Council meeting regarding an update on the progress of the Cincinnati Land Development Code informing and requesting input in the proposed new Land Development Code.

At this November Council meeting, James Weaver, city planner, will discuss and explain the proposed third draft of the Development Code Proposal and request input from the community. This will primarily affect the Montgomery Road business district.

A copy of the Second Draft Proposal and Mixed-Use District comparisons Draft Proposal are on the Kennedy Heights website, www.kennedyheights.org. For further questions, please contact Daniel Kasprowicz, Council President, daniel@kennedyheights.org, or Christine Schumacher, VP for Community Planning, christine@kennedyheights.org.

Opening Reception — Saturday, November 21, 6-8pm

Artist Talk — Saturday, December 12, 1-3pm

Members of the Kennedy Heights Arts Center's Artist Collective are proud to present this winter's exciting exhibition, IMAGINE 2015. This show features creative, new, and previously unseen work by Collective members at the Kennedy Heights Arts Center. See how the work by these artists is changing and growing! Get your holiday shopping done early by browsing the annual Holiday Boutique with local artist made goods, and our "Off the Walls!" section of the exhibit, with all works priced at $50, half of which goes directly to KHAC. Viewers are highly encouraged to attend the Opening Reception as these small works may go home with the buyer the minute they are purchased and they do go fast! Opening Reception is Saturday November 21, 6-8 pm, light refreshments will be served.

TELLING THE KENNEDY HEIGHTS STORY #4

Lewis Kennedy (Part 3)

The 1880's was a decade of successes, financial losses, the wedding of their only child, Willis, and the death of the Kennedy's only grandchild. A review of that decade will be provided in four editions of this newsletter. The review will include business activities, family tragedy, social and community activities, and residences.

Business Activities

In the 1880s, Mr. Kennedy was the owner of Lewis Kennedy and Company at 36 Vine Street, a "commission merchant" that specialized in butter, eggs, flour, dried fruits, grain, seeds, and whiskey. During that decade, he was appointed as a member of a Chamber of Commerce committee that dealt with "quotations for record of prices" for butter, and was later appointed to a grain inspection committee. In 1881 he was one of the guests for the grand opening of four grain elevators at the Plum Street station.

In 1883 he was elected as Vice-President of the Pleasant Ridge Building and Loan Company, where he served until at least 1886. In April 1887, "a new association [had] been formed out at Kennedy Heights. It will be known as the Kennedy Heights Building and Loan Company. Mr. Lewis Kennedy will, of course, be President." In 1888 the Enquirer reported that the KHBLC "had a good meeting" and "several shares were taken." In January 1887, Mr. Kennedy was reported to be one of the incorporators of the Cincinnati, Norwood and Pleasant Ridge Railway Company, with capital of $100,000. There were four additional incorporators.

Mr. Kennedy was also a real estate agent. As early as September 1881, he sold some property for $6,000. He sold bought and sold properties in 1882 and 1883, and in the latter year he gave a parcel of land to his son Willis, and his wife Ida. In 1885, he sold two lots from his Lewis Kennedy subdivision. In 1885 the Union Life Insurance Company of Maine transferred to Mr. Kennedy "about ninety acres in section 24 of Columbia Township." In 1887, he sold property on the eastside of Highland (probably today's Hedge); and later lots 21-25 (near Kennedy and Aikenside) for $7,700. The year 1887 included several lawsuits and significant financial losses.

WINTER CAMPS AT KENNEDY HEIGHTS ARTS CENTER

It's almost time to register your kids for our Art Winter Camps! Join in the fun by participating in one of five diverse day-long camps for kids ages 5-12. Each camp runs from 9:30 am to 2:30pm daily (dates are 12/21, 12/22, 12/28, 12/29, and 12/30). Extended care is available for all camps from 8:30-9:30am and 2:30-5:30pm for a fee of $10 per day. Sliding scale fees available for those in financial need. Visit our website at www.kennedyarts.org or call 513-631-4278 to learn more. Camp descriptions and registration will be announced in early November 2015.

ELDER SERIES

Lydia Morgan, organizer of Juneteenth, was presented at the August Kennedy Heights Community Council meeting and Bob Herring, recently retired Nativity School principal, was the subject of the September meeting. Both interviews are present on the Kennedy Heights website along with all other elder interviews.

THE CARING PLACE

THE CLOTHING ROOM AT THE CARING PLACE

We think of Thanksgiving as a time to be with family and have a delicious traditional family meal. For clients of The Caring Place, holidays mean added stress trying to have the special meal and fulfill family expectations.

Be an invisible angel for these families in need by filling one or more of the 400 bags requested this year. $25 will buy five chickens, or fill a bag.

An additional gift would be giving your time to help distribute the bags or deliver them to those without transportation. Families will come on Saturday, November 21 from 9:00 until noon. Just call 513-841-1499 with your offer to help. Your Thanksgiving day with family will be more rewarding knowing that you have made a Thanksgiving meal possible for people who depend on the generosity of strangers.

The Caring Place is very grateful to those who have responded to needs expressed in each issue of our community newsletter. Stop by the lower level of the Kennedy Heights Presbyterian Church between 9 and 2 on Tuesdays and Thursdays to visit or make a donation, or call 513-841-1499.

CINCINNATI ASSOCIATION FOR THE BLIND AND VISUALLY IMPAIRED

CABVI Aims to Help More African Americans Keep Their Independence

Going through life with limited vision can be very challenging. The Cincinnati Association for the Blind and Visually Impaired is ready to help with those challenges, bringing independence back into one's life. CABVI is the only private, not-for-profit organization in our community that provides services to help improve the quality of life and independence for those with vision loss. Those services include, but are not limited to: rehabilitation, providing employment, and access to technology. Their certified instructors work with young children all the way to elderly adults and are committed to helping them find a comfortable, independent lifestyle that works.

The African American community is more prone to vision loss due to our high rates of diseases like diabetes, cataracts, and sickle cell anemia when left untreated. Macular degeneration and glaucoma are other eye conditions that are commonly found in seniors and can lead to blindness. In 2012, the National Federation of the Blind reported that African Americans make up 2.9% (1,117,000) of the vision loss community, holding the second leading spot for ethnicities.

CABVI encourages people who are experiencing sight loss to seek help through one of their many services. Regular eye exams are important and can help with early detection of the mentioned diseases plus heart disease and strokes. Services are based on ability to pay, and other funding is available.

Today CABVI helps nearly 5000 people each year through all services. Vision aids and special computer training help clients live active lives. CABVI also makes news and information accessible through its Radio Reading Services with around-the-clock broadcasts and Personalized Talking Print voice mail system.

For more information on how the CABVI can help you or a loved one, contact them at 513-221-8558 or www.cincyblind.org.
